IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

C.W.P. No. 10213 of 2006

Date of Decision : 21.03.2007

Daljit Kaur ... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others. .. Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE J.S. KHEHAR, HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.D. ANAND.

Present : None for the petitioner.

Mr. Ashok Aggarwal, Additional Advocate General, Punjab, for the respondents.

J.S. Khehar, J. (Oral)

The petitioner fulfilled the educational qualifications prescribed for appointment to the post of Punjabi Mistress in the advertisement dated 12.06.2006. She was, however, ineligible to participate in the process of selection on account of certain other conditions expressed in the afore-stated advertisement. In order to overcome, the conditions which made her ineligible to participate in the process of selection, the petitioner approached this Court by filing the instant writ petition.

By our order dated 13.07.2006, the petitioner was allowed to participate in the process of selection provisionally. The result of the petitioner in a sealed cover has been produced in Court today. The sealed cover has been opened. A perusal of the result of the petitioner reveals that the petitioner was awarded 119.12 marks in the process of selection for appointment as Punjabi Mistress from the female-general category. Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions from Mr. Balwant Singh, Superintendent, office of the Subordinate Services Selection Board, Punjab, states, that the last candidate selected and appointed against the post of Punjabi Mistress from the female-general category had awarded 133.14 marks.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the respondents states, that the petitioner does not fall within the zone of selection against the post of Punjabi Mistress.

In view of the aforesaid factual position, we are satisfied that the claim of the petitioner is devoid of any merit. The instant writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
